

Did you know the elephant's closest living relatives are sea mammals - the Manatee and Dugong?

Ele words

Use the Asian Elephant fact sheet on the Perth Zoo website to complete this crossword.

Across

- Two threats to elephant survival are _____ destruction and poaching.
- _____ Elephants have rougher, lighter skin and larger ears than Asian Elephants.
- Elephants use their _____ to pull down branches and strip trees.
- Elephants are _____, eating only vegetation.
- The Asian Elephant's conservation status is _____.

Down

- _____ Elephants are smaller than African Elephants.
- Because of their size, elephants have no natural _____.
- A baby elephant is called a _____.
- Family groups join together to make a _____.
- A basic family unit is made up of _____ members.

Conservation Action

Perth Zoo's Asian Elephants are excellent artists and paint for fun. You can buy their Ele Art at Zoonique, the Perth Zoo shop. Money raised through the sale of this amazing artwork goes to protecting threatened species in the wild including Sumatran Elephants.

What is Perth Zoo's bull elephant called?

Perth Zoo has three Asian Elephants - two females named Tricia and Permai, and one male. Using the picture clues, can you work out the name of Perth Zoo's bull elephant? It means 'Golden Prince' in Malaysian.

__mpkin

__ctor

__p

_hark

An elephant pyramid

Can you move three of these elephants to flip this triangle upside down?

(Hint: You may want to experiment using ten coins, then draw the arrows to show which elephants need to move.)